Plant a tree . . .

Create a smile.

I like planting. I like to get my hands dirty. I like to plant all kinds of stuff including tomatoes, jalapenos, strawberries, flowers, trees. I like Arbor Day, it symbolizes the new beginning, the chance to watch something grow and care for under your own watch. Arbor Day is officially tomorrow, April 26. I would like to plant every day, it is of great satisfaction to watch something grow and then reap the benefits of its beauty or its ripened delicious fruit. How about a ham radio tree? It's easy to do. A hole in the ground, a pipe sternly fitted, a

Dig a hole, place a pipe sternly in the hole, even cement it in place if you think it needs it. Place the MFJ vertical tilt mount on it, then you can raise your antenna up/down when needed all by yourself, no antenna crew needed. No antenna crew bill either. That's money still in your pocket ready to buy the next thing!
